7	I was walking in the hallway with my friend, and I saw another of my friends across the hall (this was after school when hallways weren't crowded anymore) so I waved and he started to cross the hallway to talk to me, so I met him halfway and headed back across the hallway. Then 3 pretty tall boys came down the hallway, and one of them grabbed my backpack and almost shoved me off my feet, saying "Watch where you're going, Chink." Once, I saw my friend so I called their name, and one of a group of tall boys mocked my voice because it was high pitched or something.	3/14/2017 12:44 PM
8	Last year some of the boys in my Bio class would say rude things about my food allergies and all roll their eyes when I got paired with one of them for group work.	3/13/2017 7:14 PM
9	A peer of mine takes advantage of my processing delay in gym sometimes, poking me and commenting on my bad reflexes. He has also suggested cutting my long hair and shouted at me not to wear tighty-whities, so that now, whenever I have gym, I strive to be the first one there so that he doesn't see my underwear. Another boy in the library also stares at me for long periods of time; I don't know whether this should be alarming or not. Other than this, I cannot recall being treated unfairly by other students.	3/13/2017 5:43 PM

19	All of this! Unhelpful, I know, there are way too many topics to cover within this. I think one group that is not getting nearly enough attention is African American students at CHS. They are constantly bullied and faced with racial slurs etc, and since they're in such a small minority, no one really focuses on it. I wouldn't know if the school is doing something to help the African American kids in particular, but I know that they are not doing enough to stop the general population from doing so. I remember one time, I was in line for lunch, and a black girl might have cut the line (I'm not really sure). A football player started yelling at her, calling her the n word and whatever else. I'm astonished that this kind of thinking is still in existence, and still allowed in our community. This was two years ago, and I still hear about incidents similar to this.	3/13/2017 11:47 AM

7	The middle hallway was filled with hostilities last year, when the senior lockers were there.	3/14/2017 12:44 PM
8	The PE areas; in addition to the gym boy, a freshman on the football team has complained about being molested once. During the opioid addiction presentation, I also saw a student grope his girlfriend by the buttock and suckle a little at her covered nipple; we were in the back of the auditorium. In the bathrooms, there is also an unidentified boy with dark red hair and a blue jacket whom I believe vapes; I have smelled cigar smoke and strawberries when I am in the bathroom, and heard long, drawn-out snorts coming from his stall.	3/13/2017 5:43 PM
9	The bathroom (because im transgender)	3/13/2017 5:00 PM
10	the girls bathroom near the band room is very unsanitary, it has a used condom hanging from the stall. Also, one of the 2 stalls has not been working for months. The sink always has a puddle of hopefully clean water under it. Many people use this bathroom and makes it makes us enraged that it could be so filthy.	3/13/2017 4:14 PM

13	Assistant Principal's. Some of the time, they're so eager to give you a detention or give you a lecture of how stupid and immature teenagers are and how their lives (OUR lives!) are much easier than we make them to be.	3/13/2017 1:00 PM

15	the science hallway	3/13/2017 12:01 PM
16	I've heard the boys locker room is weirdly uncomfortable? Like the boys are super uncomfortable changing in front of each other, and they do it as fast as possible to avoid awkwardness/possibly gayness (idk that's an inference but you know how masculinity is). If this is true, the comparison to the girl's room is striking. We talk to each other and compliment each other's bras and stuff. I think it's unfortunate the boys might not be getting the same experience.	3/13/2017 11:47 AM
17	bathroom	3/13/2017 11:42 AM
18	The downstairs band bathroom. In addition to its lack of maintenance, i think that the janitors need to reevaluate their health education because for the past month, there has been a condom (possibly used) hanging on the top of one of the stall doors. I am not sure if the janitors are in fear of contracting an STD or if they are just disgusted with the people using that bathroom and refuse to clean it up (im disgusted as well) but the rest of the people using that bathroom should not be subjected to the horror every time that we use it.	3/13/2017 11:42 AM

There's something wrong and it isnt us! (probably) The Honor Roll system should factor in what classes you're taking.- somehow Fix the lunch rooms- they're gross!! It also looks like a tribe of cannibals had a sacrifice in there. I'm talking about all the bathrooms here by the way. Also, maybe don't block out all access to the outside world. Maybe let some websites be unblocked. And maybe quit stalking us. Seriously. Also, living in a totalitarian fascist society like this one, is KINDA uncomfortable. Just saying. As we speak I am contacting my secret network of spies across the USA and your IP is being traced right now so you better prepare for the storm, maggot. The storm that wipes out the pathetic little thing you call your life. You're fucking dead, kid. I can be anywhere, anytime, and I can kill you in over seven hundred ways, and that's just with my bare hands. Not only am I extensively trained in unarmed combat, but I have access to the entire arsenal of the United States Marine Corps and I will use it to its full extent to wipe your miserable ass off the face of the continent, you little shit. If only you could have known what unholy retribution your little "clever" comment was about to bring down upon you, maybe you would have held your fucking tongue. But you couldn't, you didn't, and now you're paying the price, you goddamn idiot. I will shit fury all over you and you will drown in it. You're fucking dead, kiddo.	3/13/2017 11:34 AM

61	Some faculty (specifically administration in the AP office and hall monitors) around the building are bitter to students I've noticed. When speaking to one student they will be fine but when speaking to another they won't give them the time of day and won't be respectful. They almost seem judgemental towards others, meanwhile we've never done anything to harm them. Maybe they just don't enjoy their job, I don't know	3/13/2017 11:32 AM

79	I think overall the school is great, there are a lot of leaky water fountain and sinks and there are a lot better ways we can fix the school to not damage the environment as much. I think there are a group of people in our school who do mistreat people based on their race gender or sexual orientation. They make fun of or don't accept them while being racist sexist or making fun of someone's sexual orientation and invalidating people's genders	3/13/2017 11:30 AM

98	The use of hall monitors is completely unnecessary; and even if it was necessary, there's too many of them. They do jobs that can easily be tasked to someone else and are mainly a waste of school funds. Funds which could be put towards maintaining the school. For example, there are hand dryers and sinks in bathrooms that have been broken throughout all my 4 years here. Also the new "late and tardy" policy needs to be changed.	3/13/2017 11:29 AM

2016-17 CHS Student Safe School Climate Survey

164	All though there is full respect for fellow students and faculty at CHS there is a huge lack of respect for this country and our flag. There are faculty with in this building that want the high school to do away with the memorial day event. There are allso multiple instances that I can recount where the flag was unintechily disrespected weather it be flying a flag that should have been retired or the fact that the the American Flag is on the wrong flag pool in the auditorium and the CT flag if flying higher than it even though the American Flag should always be higher	3/13/2017 10:40 AM
